

MATTHEW MARCUS MCDANIEL

"...Music that you can feel..." the only way to describe the music that comes from the depths of Matthew Marcus McDaniel. No nonsense rock n roll, with sultry soul singing encapsulating the blues. Matthew, on the heels of the most recent Thieves of Sunrise 3rd release, "Let the Truth Speak", looks to his long anticipated (10 years) 2nd full length solo record set to come out in 2020.

Spending near all of 2018 and 2019 on tour at home and abroad Matthew continues to hone his skills on the solo side of his career . He now brings a one man band style to his show with foot percussion and guitar looping. Matthew invites you to come be a witness to nothing less than an awakening.
